

Edgar L. Turner Gets High Post in Shrine

MIAMI — Edgar L. Turner, Boston businessman and sports enthusiast, was elected imperial outer guard of the Shrine of North America at the annual Shriner's convention in Florida this week.

TURNER

A past potentate of Aleppo Temple, Boston, he owns and operates the bottling and distributing company, 7-Up, in Eastern Massachusetts and also operates a chain of restaurants.

U.S. Grant for Maine Home for Old Favored

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Welfare Department Wednesday gave preliminary approval of a $110,000 grant for a Jewish home for the aged at Portland, Me.

The department advised Sen. Edmund S. Muskie (D-Maine) that the $349,000 building would contain 22-beds. Nursing care would be provided.

*Heard
Thurs. June 22/61*